

Collins Barrow attends the 2013 Claims Conference

TORONTO, ON, Feb. 6, 2013 /CNW/ - Collins Barrow Toronto Partners will be on hand to field inquiries at the Ontario Insurance Adjusters Association (OIAA) 2013 Claims Conference, which takes place February 6 at the Metro Toronto Convention Centre.

“Collins Barrow has deep expertise in litigation accounting and valuations and is well qualified to assist insurance professionals in qualifying and quantifying their claims,” says Ian Wollach, Partner, Collins Barrow Toronto. “We also offer a full range of specialized support services, such as investigative and forensic accounting and damages quantification, positioning us to provide our clients with high quality professional services.”

For further information contact Ian Wollach, Partner, at (416) 480-0160 or iwollach@collinsbarrow.com.

About Collins Barrow

Recognized as Canada’s mid-market leader for audit, tax and advisory solutions, our association of 22 independent member firms comprises the eighth largest public accounting group nationally by revenue. Through our strong network infrastructure, shared expertise, resources and offices from coast to coast, we provide clients ranging in size from large, publicly traded companies to owner-managed and emerging businesses with a full complement of professional services across every major industry sector.

www.collinsbarrow.com

Clarity Defined.™